

Video Case 1: Investigating Mentor Stances Mentoring Stances Worksheet

Find examples of the mentor engaging in each move during the mentor-mentee conference. Use direct quotes whenever possible.

Extending thinking Moves that invite the teacher to verbalize perceptions, thoughts, plans and arguments.	Teaching directly Moves through which the mentor provides direct assistance.	Promoting accountability Moves that are grounded in standards

- Where are decision points – places where it’s clear the mentor has made a decision about what stance to take?
- What shifts in stance took place?
- Was there a moment in which changing the stance might have been effective?
